

Hartismere School

Teacher of English: aspirant or established Lead Practitioner

Required September 2024

Salary - Lead Practitioner scale point 1-18 (currently £47,417- £72,085)

A suitable candidate for the role of Lead Practitioner will meet the requirements of the role of teacher and tutor as described in the core element of the generic job description. Additional duties will be set out in the job description of any leading practitioner and will include:

- A leadership role in developing, implementing and evaluating policies and practices in the school that contribute to school improvement;
- The modelling and leading improvement of teaching skills within school;
- Improving the effectiveness of staff and colleagues, within school and other settings as appropriate, defined by the Headteachers.

The focus of each discrete Lead Practitioner role will be established at appointment and be subject to annual Professional Development Review that will shape the subsequent development of that role.

All Lead Practitioners will be:

- Highly competent in all elements of the Teachers' Standards and
- their achievements and contribution to the school will be substantial and sustained.

Responsibilities (all teachers):

- To ensure high standards of achievement and progress amongst those pupils taught regularly in lessons
- To provide consistently high quality teaching in lessons for pupils in all key stages
- To provide high quality feedback to pupils on how to improve the standard of their work in accordance with school policies and the direction of the head of department or headteachers
- To set high quality and meaningful homework in accordance with school policies and under the direction of the head of department or school leadership team
- To maintain a high standard of educational classroom display material and contribute to departmental and whole school display activities
- To ensure and maintain good order in the classroom so that children are able to learn, free from disruption
- To liaise with learning support assistants in order to ensure the most effective adaptations for pupils
- To deliver and feedback on schemes of work and programmes of study as required by the head of department
- To write reports on pupil progress for parents and carers as well as other school leaders as required

- To cooperate fully with the school's arrangements for the safeguarding of children
- To act as a form tutor as required and in so doing to support high standards of behaviour throughout the school by the application of whole school expectations for form time and social time
- To attend and contribute positively to whole school, pastoral and subject meetings as required by the headteachers, head of year and head of department
- To demonstrate a consistent support for the enrichment of students' education through extra-curricular trips, clubs, exhibitions and other activities
- To provide active and positive support for school events including parent consultation evenings, celebration and awards events, open evenings and afternoons and other occasions as requested by the headteachers
- To engage enthusiastically with your own professional development as a teacher and subject specialist
- To provide a good role model in dress by avoiding 'dressing down' at work and by dressing in a business-like manner
- To provide a good role model for students by treating all nationalities, religious groups, those from wide ranging political persuasions, differing genders and sexualities and racial groups with respect, fairness and dignity
- To undertake any other tasks or responsibilities that may reasonably be assigned by the headteachers